Jerusalem - VIN News has confirmed that Rabbi Elazar Abu Chatzeira of Beer Sheva, the grandson of the Baba Sali, was killed at the age of 70, tonight after being stabbed in the heart by a visitor known to him who ostensibly came for a bracha.

Details are still emerging about this terrible event.

Rabbi Abu Chatzeira had a reputation as a tzaddik and was known to be a mekubal who brought great yeshuos to many people. Many Israeli politicians and businessman were known to consult with him often and ask his advice. The Rabbi was also considered by some as controversial.

According to Israeli media reports the man who stabbed the rabbi has been identified as Asher Dahan from Elad, and is under arrest.

More details soon.
